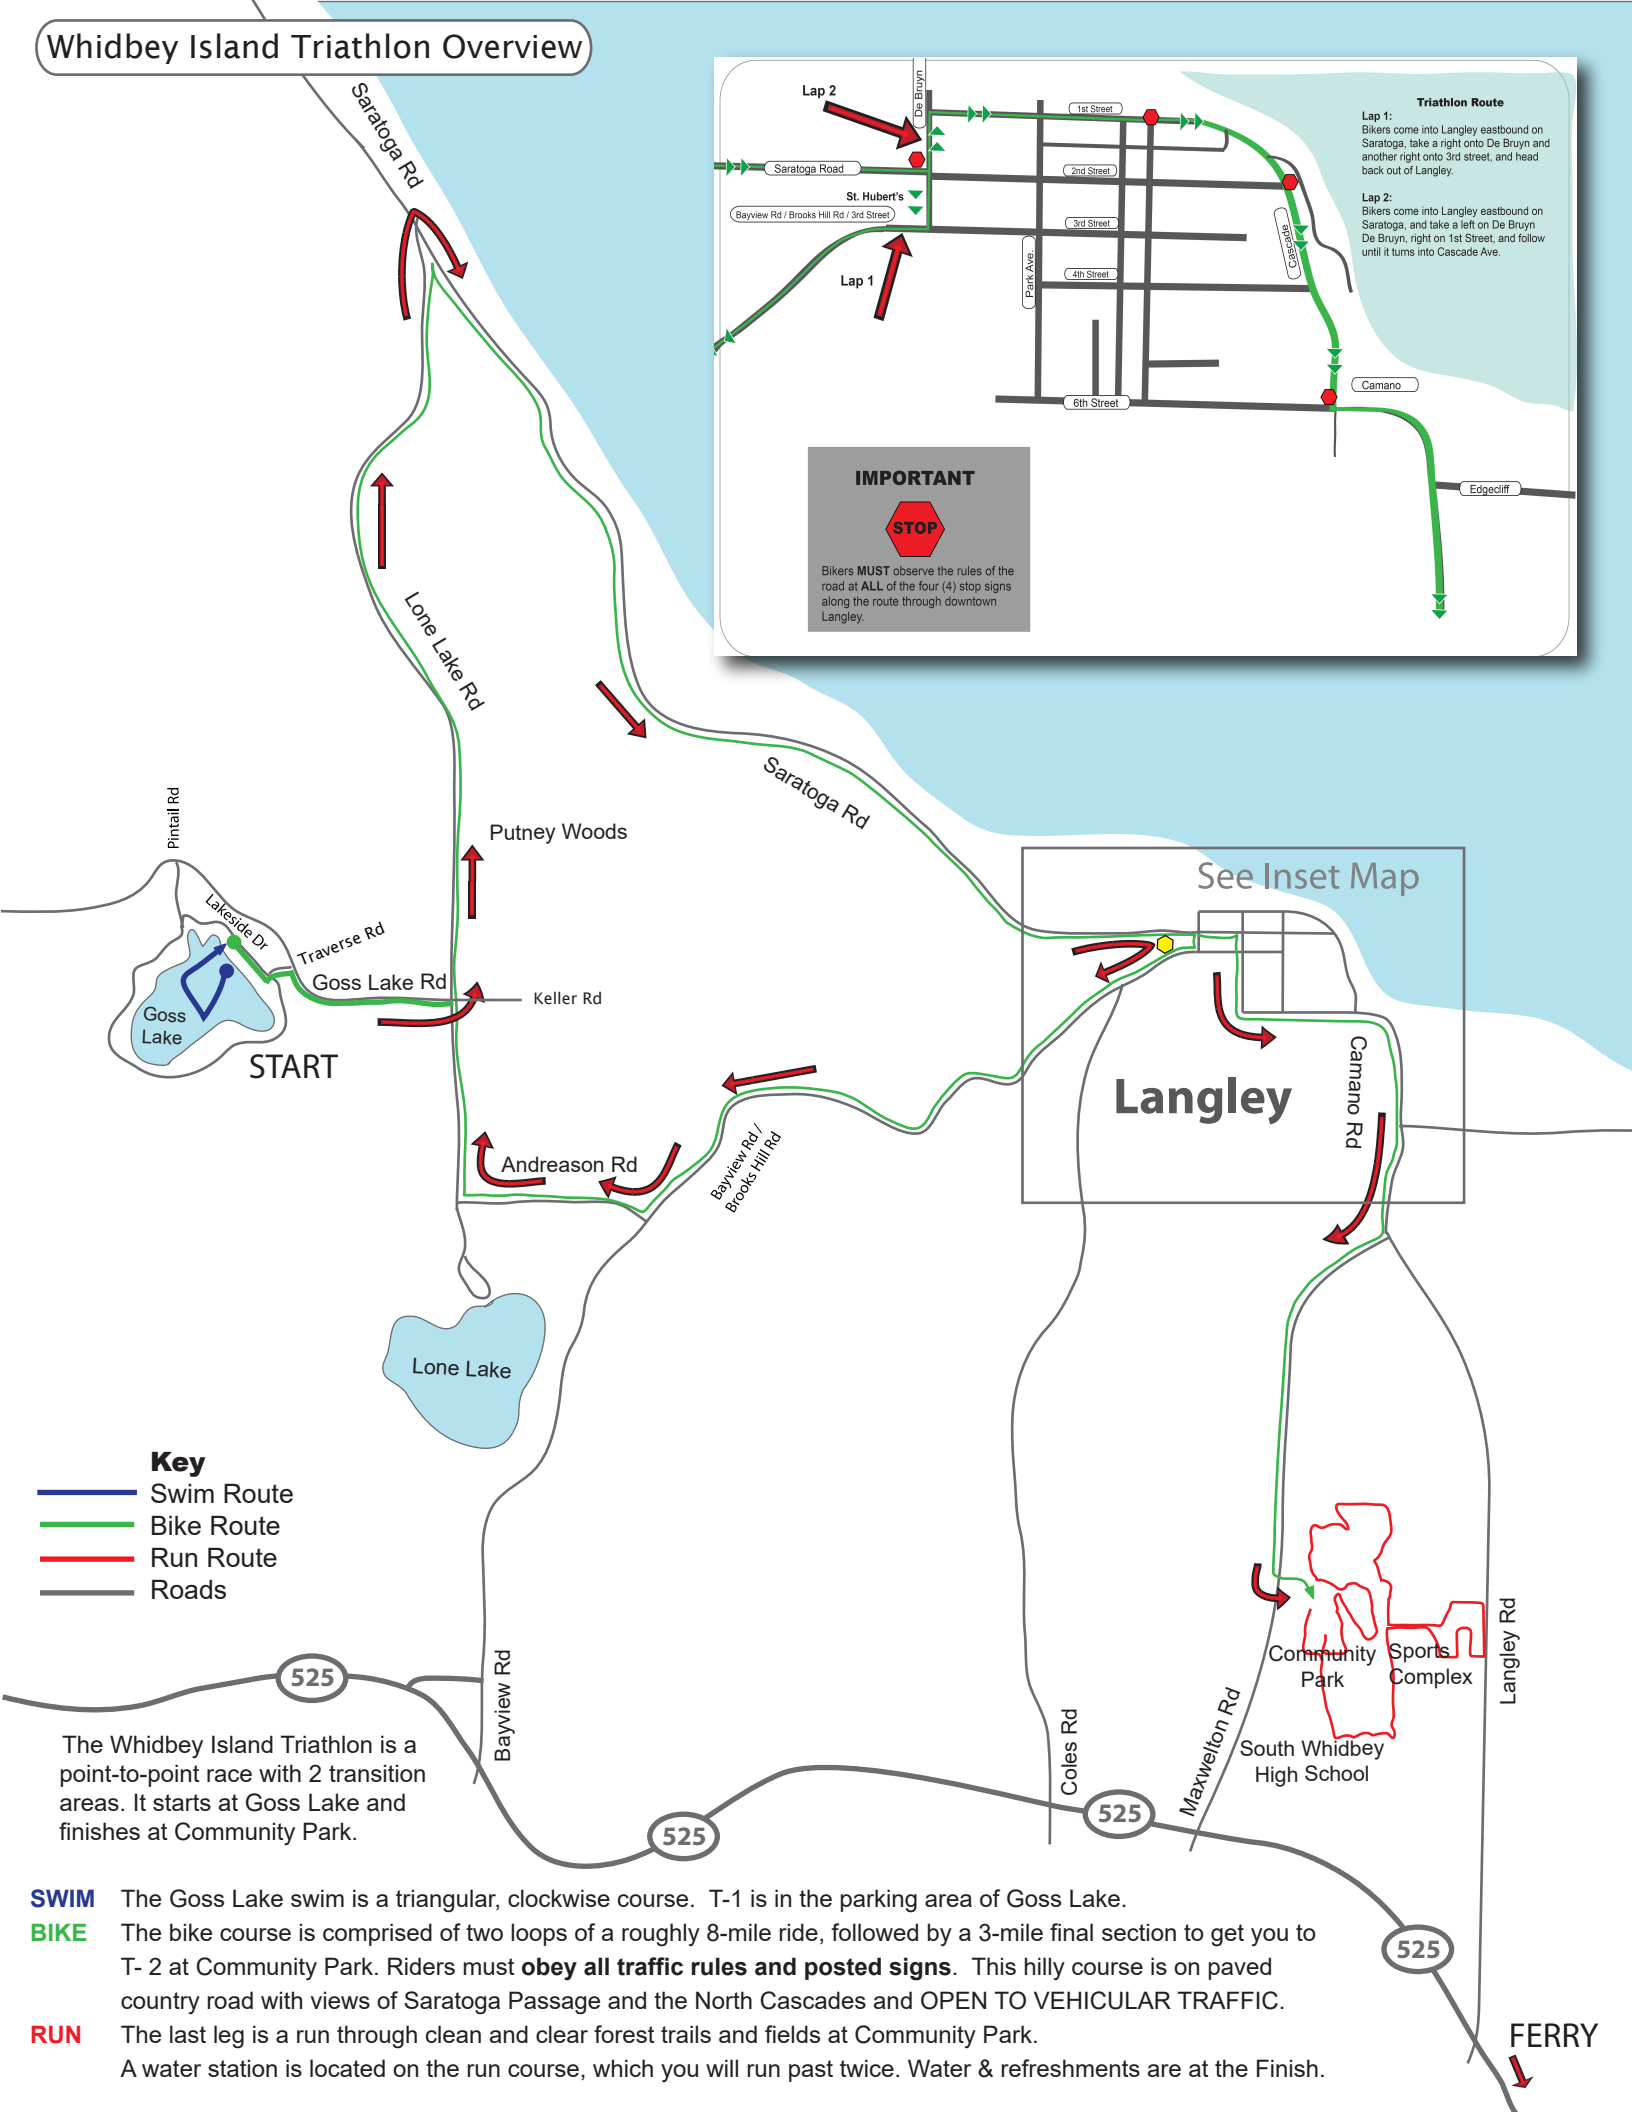
Whidbey Island Triathlon Overview



The Whidbey Island Triathlon is a point-to-point race with 2 transition areas. It starts at Goss Lake and finishes at Community Park.

SWIM The Goss Lake swim is a triangular, clockwise course. T-1 is in the parking area of Goss Lake.

BIKE The bike course is comprised of two loops of a roughly 8-mile ride, followed by a 3-mile final section to get you to T- 2 at Community Park. Riders must obey all traffic rules and posted signs. This hilly course is on paved country road with views of Saratoga Passage and the North Cascades and OPEN TO VEHICULAR TRAFFIC.

RUN The last leg is a run through clean and clear forest trails and fields at Community Park.
A water station is located on the run course, which you will run past twice. Water & refreshments are at the Finish.
